LIBRARY BOOK REVIEW

By Wendy McCready

Emotionally Free (available in the church library) by Grant Mullen gives a compassionate, balanced approach to the discussion on mental and emotional challenges from a Christian perspective. Incorporating his own story of healing and his experience as a medical doctor, Mullen provides the reader with godly advice that takes into consideration all factors that can contribute to mental and emotional pain, including physical and spiritual causes. The book is easy to read and would be beneficial to every Christian who wants a better understanding of mental health and the issues surrounding it.

PRAYER AND PRAISE

Continue to pray for the acceptance of the application to MCC that was submitted by the Hosseiny Sponsorship Group.

Praise! Joan Snider is home from the hospital – only essential care givers are able to visit with her at this time, but phone calls are welcome.

Continue to pray for the Interim Servant Team that has been established here at Alma – pray for unity amongst them and for wisdom on decisions that are made.

If anyone has a prayer request or praise item they would like to share, please email

INTERIM SERVANT TEAM

"An Interim Servant Team has been put in place to provide direction and care for the congregation. An external advisor, Gord Martin, will be assisting the chairman of the group. The team consists of Mike Martin, Verden Martin, Allan deBoer, John VanVeen, Ryan Versluis, Sherman Martin and Trevor Hill. Mike and Verden are part of this team but feel free to contact any member for ministry needs. We anticipate this team to be in place until at least the end of April".
